

How to be a Quiet Child (by day)

In the daytime quiet children are perfect to have in the house because all the grownups will be happy.

To be a quiet child there are some easy steps you can follow.

First you should read your books. This is a good way to be quiet and help your learning.

After that you need to feed your goldfish so that you keep busy.

Finally, you can watch Mr Smith wash his car, so you do not disturb the grownups.

If you do all these things, you will be the perfect quiet child by day.
