

Literacy and Reading

A list of good texts for this topic: Rumble in the Jungle, Where the Wild Things Are, The Loudest Roar, Walking Through the Jungle, and Monkey Puzzle.

-Read every day to a grown-up at home.

-Draw and label jungle animals. Can you make masks or puppets using paper and a lolly stick to create your own jungle story?

-One day a tiger comes to Eastbrook! Write about the events of that strange day. Think about the story 'The Tiger Who Came To Tea' for ideas.

-Write an interesting fact file about your favourite jungle animal.

Physical Development

-Log in to Real PE to try some of their Jungle Adventure challenges on days 7 and 8.

-Jungle animals need to stay still when a predator is approaching. Play musical statues to test your balance and ability to stay still when needed.

Animal Kingdom

Week 4

Down in the Jungle...

Understanding the World (Science, History and Geography)

-Can you sort Jungle animals by land, water or air. Which animals can you think of for each category?

-Draw your own jungle map. Think carefully about where each animal will live in your own jungle and don't forget important aspects like rivers and food sources.

-Research and make a list explaining which animals live in Africa, Asia and The Amazon Rainforest.

Personal, Social and Health Education

-Why are jungles and rainforests important? Discuss or write your thoughts with someone at home.

-Try and eat a wide range of fruit and vegetables and think about the food jungle animals might enjoy.

Draw or write a list of foods for different animals.

Communication and Language

-Record yourself reading your story aloud.

-Try and learn new vocabulary and their meanings for example: herbivore, omnivore, carnivore, humid, camouflage and climate.

-Talk to somebody at home about any aspect of this learning at the end of the week.

Creative (Music, Drama and Art)

-The Amazon Rainforest is a very noisy place. Create your own animal noises with your voice or any equipment at home.

-Make an Amazon Forest rain maker using rice and resources around the home.

-Look at animal footprints on the internet and sketch your own carefully.
