

Literacy and Reading

Choose a country in Asia and create a tourism leaflet encouraging people to visit. You could include information about places to visit, food and how to get there.

Complete the Japan reading comprehension activity.

A haiku is traditionally a Japanese poem consisting of three short lines that do not rhyme. Have a go at writing your own Haiku. See the website for instructions.

Have a go at making a traditional Chinese recipe. Write a set of instructions on how you did it. Ask your family to write a review of your recipe. Send their comments to us.

Physical Education

Yoga originated in Ancient India. Have a go at a yoga video on Youtube. You could try this link and choose one of the titles that appeals to you:

<https://www.youtube.com/user/CosmicKidsYoga>

Learn some Bollywood dance moves.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nJ0malCKKEI>

Can you come up with your own routine?

Communication and Language

Memory game: How many countries from Asia can you name? Can you remember the five you put a star by? Play this game each day and see if you can remember more and more countries each day. Let us know how many you can remember by the end of the week.

Learn how to say and write numbers 1 – 10 in Mandarin (see the website for flashcards).

Make a quiz based on an Asian country of your choice and test someone at home. How many can they get right?

Creative

Find out about Manga (a style of Japanese comic) and have a go at drawing your own Manga characters.

Have a go at some paper folding crafts (origami). This website has some simple ideas to get your started

<https://www.origami-fun.com/origami-for-kids.html>

Make a Chinese paper lantern. You can find instructions on the website.

Whilst you are doing some of these activities, listen to some traditional Chinese music on the link below:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pBOKeVsiJho>

Understanding the World

Make a list of all the countries that are in Asia. Put them into alphabetical order. Put a tick by how many of them you have heard of and a star by 5 countries that you have never heard of but want to try to remember. Find out about the 5 regions of Asia and which countries are in each region. Write this information on the list that you have made above.

Complete the Asia Facts Worksheet using the internet to do some research <https://www.kids-world-travel-guide.com/asia-facts.html>

Create a 3D “texture” map of an Asian country. Use different resources for different geographical areas such as mountains, deserts and rivers.

Watch this video about what it is like to be a child in Shanghai. <https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/geography-a-child-led-introduction-to-the-chinese-city-of-shanghai/zdrtvk7>. Make a list of some things that are the same or different to your own life.

Our World

Week 4

Asia

Personal, Social and Health Education

Malala Yousafzai is an activist and campaigner who grew up in Pakistan. Watch this video about her book <https://www.puffinschools.co.uk/resources/ks2-video-malalas-magic-pencil-malala-yousafzai-2-mins/>

Think about what positive changes you would make in the world if you had a magic pencil.

Mahatma Gandhi (an Indian leader) once said “You must be the change you wish to see in the world”. What do you think he meant by this?