World Book Day

Dear Parents and Carers,

Eastbrook will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 7th March this year!

On this day we are inviting children to dress up as a character from one of their favourite books. The costumes could be based on characters from anything from traditional tales to comic book superheroes (please see the message below from Friends of Eastbrook for news about their upcoming costume sale!) If possible, we would also like the children to bring in the book that their character is from. During the day, classes will take part in different activities linked to reading.

On Thursday 7th March the children will also receive a £1 book token which they can swap for a FREE WORLD BOOK DAY BOOK (there are 15 titles to choose from) or use to get £1 off any book or audio book costing £2.99 or more. For more details please visit the World Book Day website: www.worldbookday.com The vouchers are valid until Sunday 31st March.

Thank you in advance for your support; I look forward to seeing some interesting and original outfits!

Mr Watkin
(English Co-ordinator)

Friends of Eastbrook would like to thank everyone who have been filling up the costume donation bin in the school foyer. Having the option to recycle costumes not only gives families the chance to save money, it also helps us be more sustainable as a school community.

The volunteers have been busy sorting and found they have some World Book Day costumes which they plan to sell in the playground on Thursday 29th February alongside a 'Leap in to Spring' Frosty sale.

If you do have any further costume donations please drop in to the donation bin in the school entrance and the volunteers will ensure these get on the rail.
